Parents Appreciation for our Events

Event 1 : Motivational Speech by Mr Vaidya

I was told by my son that the session by Dr. Vaidya was excellent. He was thrilled to know that Dr. Vaidya teaches Sanskrit and has more non-Indian students than Indians. As soon as he came back from school he started looking up information about Dr. Vaidya and the things he spoke about in the session. So the purpose of the session, in our case, was completely fulfilled. Thanks to the PTA for this session, looking forward to more such sessions in future!

It is better if we put the comments what they learned good from the session, for best knowledge gain if little pain no matter. that's why someone said. NO PAIN NO GAIN. My daughter told me about the story, these little little moral stories are for character building, and I hope they arranged this sessions after thinking goodness of our children only.

Thank u PTA and school for a super fun filled day yesterday. My kids thoroughly enjoyed.

Event 3 : Bal Din

I can tell PTA family to thank you so much for arranging wonderful BAAL MELAA Thank you

Thank you PTA ,TEACHER PRINCIPAL, NANNIES AND SENIOR CHILDERS for successful Ballmela 🙌🙌🙌 Thank you

Also the food was mostly prepared by the teachers themselves, so for sure they hv kept a note of utmost hygiene. My elder one was in charge the games stall in junior school for the morning hours and had a tattoo painted on her cheeks. She was so excited, that she didn't wash it off till night and is perfectly fine.

I was witness of preparation and it is not easy Teacher and principal and non teaching staff has put lots of efforts to make this event successful

It's better to stop complaining and hope ILS will short out the problem next time definitely which children or parents face this time Children enjoyed yesterday that truth no one can deny

Parents Appreciation for our Events

My child enjoyed a lots yesterday in bal mela. No issues, small things with these many children can be ignored. Thanks to all for efforts .

Good morning everyone My both kids also enjoyed a lot BAL MELA.

Also PTA applaud u for the pricing of the food stalls. Superb.

Along with the variety. The kids were spoilt for choices

Thank you for organizing Bal Mela .... My kids were so happy when they came to know on 14th School they have Bal Mela .... & the Happiness I saw after long on there faces ... & whole day they were enjoying talking what fun & enjoyment they did.... & these fun breaks can definitely will bring improvement in there lost interest in studies & School attendance ... what I feel .. Thank you 😊

Even junior school all the teachers were on their toes since morning making sure each child have fun filled day -some of them were fasting still with happy face they were making all arrangements , atleast we shud appreciate all of them 🙏

True.Hats off to them 🙏

Do you all know grade 12 kids have taken so much of effort in this...its not easy for them to do all this along with their studies

Exactly they hv been on their toes with meetings n running up n down

Doing all this with the help of Nigerian staff it's difficult..we women can't ha.dlw one house girl at home..how can you all talk like this for your school

I know cause i am a parent of grade 12th child. They just wanted all the kids to enjoy taking up the responsibility of the games stall. As was the motto of the PTA and school

Parents Appreciation for our Events

PTA, u win some n u lose some. But u surely did win the hearts of all the children. Particularly the 12th graders, who got a chance to be a part of the Bal Mela, something they wait for the whole year long, before leaving ILS. So thank you once again. 🙏👏

Agreed with you all. Yesterday both of my kids studying in Grade 10 and 5 were very very happy and excited throughout the day. After many stressful days I had seen my daughter soo much happy as she in grade 10. To enjoy the day with their friends was most important for our kids. No matter what they won or not. Hats off to all the PTA members, Principal, Teachers, school staff and all the volunteers. Thank you so much for making all our children happy. 🙏
